Correcting words often confused (there vs. their)

• There are words that are confused because they sound similar:

  o Example: There/their
    At the community meeting last week, there were several individuals who complained that their concerns were not being given enough attention.

• There are words that are confused because they are spelled in a similar manner:

  o Example: ExceptEXPECT
    Most tenants, except those who live in rent stabilized units, expect their rents to continue to rise considerably.
